

Land Restoration and Trails in the Galisteo Basin

Date: Monday, October 23, 2023

Time: 9 am - 1 pm

Location: 301 Thornton Ranch Road, Lamy

RSVP: Melanie Solis Alvarez at melanie@sfct.org or call (505) 989-7019

Lunch will be served

The service project will involve improving erosion control, removing non-native vegetation, and building or maintaining natural-surface trails at Santa Fe Conservation Trust "Conservation Homestead" Project. The Homestead sits next to the Galisteo Basin Preserve.

Gloves and tools will be provided. If you plan to participate, Bring long pants, sun protection, and water.

Directions:

Please park at the lower gravel parking area at Cottonwood Trailhead at the end of Thornton Ranch Rd. Directions: From Santa Fe head north on I-25 or Old Las Vegas Hwy to US 285 towards Clines Corners. Head south on US 285 towards Lamy just after mile marker 285 turn right onto Astral Valley Road into the Galisteo Basin Preserve. Turn left on Thornton Ranch Road. Please park at the Cottonwood trailhead off Thornton Ranch road where we will walk into the property. Staff will meet folks there. The property address is 301 Thornton Ranch Road, Lamy, NM 87540.

